"We know that yesterday is but today's memory and tomorrow is today's dream."

In Surroundings . . .

We scan our physical environment. Our mind begins to recognize changes. Is this where we began our longest days, experienced our greatest joys and deepest sorrows? Do we still belong? Come inside, stay up tonight—work for a life, share a death, hear the first cry of an individual. You can never separate yourself from these.

In Associates and Friends . . .

We look around and wonder what became of the people who began this pilgrimage with us. Is it true we have been greatly altered by our profession or is it our necessary involvement with the fundamental aspects of life that has broken down the barrier between us until we know each other—perhaps too well.

In Routine and Leisure Time . . .

There is one element of our work which has not changed. The element is pressure. It wears us down and makes us fight back—sometimes with each other. As a group we are perhaps as well known for our moments of play as our hours of labor. It is a necessity, for without relaxation and release pressure renders us unable to function in relation to each other or those for whom we strive.

In Way of Life . . .

Change is about the only consistent factor we are experiencing now. It colors every area of our lives— less hours with our families, long nights of call, constant ringing of telephones, endless exams. Nothing allows us to forget we are governed by our love and respect for the human body and, hopefully, the mind and soul.

Organizations

Inter Council

Intercouncil consists of the presidents of the six schools of the Medical College. The council works for consolidation of the schools as one unit—to learn to work together for the good of all. It also works to promote communication between faculty and students. This year the council sponsored two social functions—a New Year's party and Alhambra.

The Caducean Staff

This is the second year The Caducean has been published. It was completed through the combined efforts of the Schools of Nursing, Medicine, Pharmacy and Graduate Studies. Students from these four schools worked jointly on the staff to produce this edition of which we can all be proud. Work began during the Spring of 1967 and the last deadline was met in April of 1968. The work was finished after the proof-reading of all the sections by various members of the staff.

Alpha Kappa Kappa

The school year of 1967-68 was again fruitful and enjoyable for members of AKK fraternity. As usual members were active in school activities and ranked high scholastically. The fraternity parties were enjoyed by all with the most memorable being the annual barbecue-beer bust.

Right: Robert O'Dell—Treasurer, William Wilson—President, William Wingfield—Social Chairman.

Phi Chi

Sigma Kappa of Phi Chi is the oldest medical fraternity at the Medical College of South Carolina. Its goals are to promote a fraternal spirit among its members and the advancement of medical science.

Phi Chi lodge is conveniently located on the campus of the Medical College of S. C. adjacent to the Alumni Memorial House. It is open year round for the use of brothers, alumni, and guests. Numerous recreational facilities are available and several table tennis and pool tournaments are held yearly. Throughout the year dances and other social functions are held by the fraternity.

Phi Chi Auxiliary is very active in fraternity affairs and carry out many community service projects each year.

Phi Rho Sigma

Right: Ron Wade—Alumni Secretary, Ed West—Social Chairman, Tal Seabrook—Rush Chairman, Drew Rogers—Treasurer, Malcom Cothran—Secretary, Fred Butehorn—Vice President, Bob Malanud—President

Phi Rho Sigma, Chi Delta Chapter, was founded at The Medical College in 1906 and is now the school's largest fraternity. The fraternity offers the "embryo Physician" the stimulus to scholarship, the social atmosphere, financial assistance, and the fulfillment of participation; in community projects so greatly desired and necessary in the building of the qualities which are inherent in the word physician. The beautifully furnished Phi Rho House is located overlooking the ocean at the Isle of Palms and provides a comfortable, relaxing atmosphere for brothers and guests on every occasion.

Alpha Omega Alpha

Alpha Omega Alpha is an honorary medical society, comprised of three classes of members. Undergraduate membership is based entirely on scholarship, personal honesty and potential leadership. Alumni and faculty membership is granted for distinctive achievements in the art and practice of scientific medicine, and honorary membership is awarded to eminent leaders in medicine and the allied sciences.

Kappa Psi

The first pharmaceutical fraternity began as Kappa Psi Fraternity at Russell Military Academy in New Haven, Connecticut, on May 30, 1879. Kappa Psi not only has the distinction of being the first in Pharmacy but today maintains the largest membership of all the pharmaceutical fraternities. There are fifty-four throughout the United States.

Iota chapter was founded here at the Medical College in 1907 and received its charter in 1927.

SAPHA

The student branch of the American Pharmaceutical Association was organized for the purpose of bringing the students together with the members of the A. Ph. A. to discuss matters of common interest and to encourage their participation in the programs of the Association. Through meetings during the year a wide range of topics are discussed which encourage the students toward an understanding of pharmacy and its place on the health team.

United Christian Fellowship

United Christian Fellowship is the religious organization for students of all denominations here at MCSC. The group meets each Thursday night in the first floor recreation area of the School of Nursing. Varied programs consisting of messages by persons of many different faiths followed by discussion periods prove to be very interesting as well as informative. This is truly a time of "Christian Fellowship" for all who attend.

Baptist Student Union

A Christian group welcoming students from throughout the Medical College, BSU strives to present to the student an opportunity for spiritual development during these years of intellectual growth. Dynamic speakers, informal discussions, and thought-provoking state conventions help the student explore his own concepts.

The BSU member enjoys the fellowship offered through city-wide get togethers, outings, retreats at Folly Beach, and a game of ping-pong at the student center.

Administration

Administration

Dr. William M. McCord, President of the Medical College of South Carolina, graduated from Oberlin College with a A.B. degree, from Yale University with a Ph.D. degree in Chemistry and from Louisiana State University with an M.D. degree. He served an internship at Charity Hospital in New Orleans.

Dr. McCord, born in Durban, Natal, Union of South Africa, is the son of American medical missionaries. He and his wife, Evangeline Andrews McCord, have two children, James and Marilyn.

Dr. McCord taught in the Louisiana State University Medical School for eleven years in the Biochemistry Department. In 1942 he went into the Army in the Medical Corps for about four years serving in the United States and as a transport surgeon on the high seas. In late 1945 he was appointed Professor of Chemistry and head of the department at the Medical College of South Carolina and has served in this capacity since that time. He has been privileged to teach many of the physicians now in practice in South Carolina and also in Louisiana.

He has published numerous papers in the scientific journals and has spoken before many learned societies.

Dr. McCord has served as President of the Charleston County Medical Society, and as President of several scientific societies active in this area. He is a member of a number of societies including the American Medical Association, the American Chemical Society, the Society of Nuclear Medicine, the Federation for Clinical Research, Sigma Xi and Alpha Omega Alpha.

School of Graduate Studies

Dr. Fredrick W. Kinard, a native of Leesville, South Carolina, following undergraduate preparation at Clemson University and some graduate study in the University of Chicago, joined the faculty of the Medical College of South Carolina as an Assistant in Chemistry. After 3 years in this position, he went to the University of Virginia as Research Fellow and Instructor in Biochemistry. Obtaining the Ph.D. degree at Virginia, he returned to the Medical College of South Carolina as an Instructor in Physiology. During the intervening period he has successively held the various positions which culminated in a professorship in Physiology. Through leaves of absence, he undertook further graduate study in the Universities of Chicago and Michigan and completed work for the M. D. degree at the University of Tennessee.

When a graduate program was instituted at the Medical College of South Carolina in 1949, Dr. Kinard became Chairman of the Committee on Graduate Studies. In 1965, all graduate endeavors were incorporated in a formal organization, the School of Graduate Studies, with Dr. Kinard as Dean.

School of Allied Health

Dr. George F. Stevenson graduated from University of Western Ontario, London, Ontario, Canada in 1945. He served his internship in Civic Hospital in Ottawa, Ontario, Canada. He served his Residency at St. Joseph Hospital, Hamilton, Ontario.

Dr. Stevenson and his wife, Fern L. Davis Stevenson, have two children, Mark and Scot.

Dr. Stevenson has held many positions and had several hospital appointments. Among these were Assistant Professor of Pathology, Northwestern University Medical School, Chicago, Illinois, Director of St. Joseph Hospital School Of Medical Technology, Chicago, Assistant to Director for Special Programs, Pathology and Allied Science Service, V. A. Central Office Washington.

At the present Dr. Stevenson is Dean of the School of Allied Health Sciences at the Medical College of South Carolina.

School of Pharmacy

Dr. William H. Golod was appointed to the position of Dean of the School of Pharmacy upon the retirement of Dr. William A. Prout. His appointment became effective on July 1, 1965. Dr. Golod received his undergraduate training at Fordham University, his Master's degree at St. Louis College of Pharmacy and his Ph.D. degree from Purdue University. He came to the Medical College in 1958 as Assistant Professor of Pharmacy and in July, 1963 was promoted to Associate Professor. In September of the same year he was made the Assistant Dean under Dr. Prout.

Dr. Golod is a member of several scientific organizations including Sigma Xi and Rho Chi. In November, 1963 he was awarded the Geigy Mortar and Pestle for leadership in the field of hospital pharmacy. During that year, he also served as president of the South Carolina Society of Hospital Pharmacists.

School of Nursing

Miss Mills graduated from the Emory University School of Nursing, Atlanta, Georgia in 1933. She holds a B.S. Degree in Public Health Nursing from Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tennessee and a M.A. Degree from Teachers College, Columbia University, New York City.

Her background includes supervision in Nursing Service and in teaching and administration. As a member of the Emory University School of Nursing Faculty for twelve years, she was head of the Department of Medical-Surgical Nursing. She was Director of the Piedmont Hospital School Of Nursing from 1963-1965.

She has been a member of the National League for Nursing since its inception and has held numerous state offices. She is a member of the Sigma Theta Tau National Honor Society in Nursing. Much of Miss Mills experience in collegiate nursing has included the critical study of the Nature of Professional Nursing and various research explorations in the development of designs which might yield data toward the possible development of a theory of Clinical Nursing.

Miss Mills is currently serving as Dean of the Baccalaureate Program for the School of Nursing at the Medical College of South Carolina.
